WESTERN EUROPE - COMMUNIST CHINA: THE AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT PLANS TO OPEN RECOGNITION NEGOTIATIONS WITH COMMUNIST CHINA SOON, AND BELGIUM MAY SEEK NEGOTIATIONS ON EXCHANGING DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES EARLY NEXT YEAR.

25X1

Belgium, which claims to have already implicitly recognized Communist China, has authorized some of its diplomats to make contact with the Chinese to determine their interest in establishing diplomatic relations. The Belgians, in addition to having a special problem with Peking arising from the imprisonment of one of their nationals, are at present not willing to break relations with Taipei.

Luxembourg has recently indicated that it will not be far behind Belgium on the recognition issue. It has decided to switch from opposition to abstention in regard to the Albanian resolution which would replace Taiwan with Peking in the UN. [REDACTED]
